Aged Tumbled™ Manufactured Stone Veneer

A rustic and time-worn look that never goes out of style. New Aged Tumbled™ manufactured stone veneer from Cultured Stone® features classic rectangular and square shapes, imperfect edges and rough surfaces. Available in three landscape-inspired colors and five sizes, these stones combine well with brick and can be placed in courses or random patterns. They're also large enough to go on commercial venues, yet small enough for residential applications. No matter how you stack it, new Aged Tumbled™ manufactured stone veneer adds a layer of stunning natural beauty to a wide variety of building designs.
