DVDO Mobile™ All-in-One MHL™-to-HDMI® Smartphone and Tablet Adapter

DTV Viewing + PC Sync + AC/USB Charging

Get maximum entertainment value from your smartphone or tablet with DVDO Mobile™, the versatile, all-in-one advanced connection solution. All the movies, games, videos, photos, music, and apps you currently enjoy on your mobile device can now be displayed on your living room or hotel DTV with DVDO Mobile. For road warriors, view PPT presentations in conference rooms. DVDO Mobile is compatible with practically all DTVs (as long as there is an HDMI® input) and all MHL™ (Mobile High-Definition Link) enabled mobile devices. Connect to PCs too! View content from the small screen to the big screen all while the DTV charges the device's battery.

DTV & PC Connections for Mobile

DVDO Mobile fits right in with your home theater, yet it's completely portable making it an indispensable travel companion. Watch your favorite videos on a big screen, anywhere! One easy connection to the smartphone or tablet delivers the following benefits:

- Uncompressed 1080p video, 7.1 surround sound
- Remote control of MHL-enabled mobile device using DTV remote
- Computer connection for PC/Mac (USB)
- Battery charging from the display to the device

Pack One Accessory, Charge Two Ways

Ever forget to pack a charger or cable? DVDO Mobile provides AC/USB charging in one portable package.

Relax On the Couch as You Control the Action

You can use your DTV's remote control* to select content and run smartphone or tablet apps from the couch. (*The DTV must have Consumer Electronics Control—CEC—which is standard on most new DTVs. Updates to maintain compatibility with new DTV models are available at: www.SimplifyLabs.com.)

All the Cables Included

- 1-meter high-speed HDMI cable for hooking up to a DTV.
- Integrated 20-inch USB-A plug cable connects to a computer (USB port) to sync files and charge battery.
- Integrated 8-inch micro-USB plug cable connects to your MHL-enabled smartphone, tablet, or other mobile device.
- 30-inch total span of built-in cables features wrap-and-hide cable management that's clutter-free and allows for easy packing.
