

Meeting Water Quality Standards: Partial Treatment with Blending Valves

Blending Valves for Potable Water Systems

- Compliance to the EPA Water Quality standards is key
- Partial treatment through blending is a more cost effective option than designing and installing a complete treatment systems
- Provides accurate ratio control
- SCADA compatible solution

Typical Application Cla-Val Blending Valves

visit www.cla-val.com or email info@cla-val.com to learn more