

CineCurve

The CineCurve features a native 2.40:1 image area allowing full enjoyment and flexibility when watching movies in super-wide screen formats, and masks to conform to HDTV and NTSC TV formats

CineCurve

Designed for use with an anamorphic lens, the CineCurve features a native 2.40:1 image area providing complete flexibility for viewing any movie in their native screen formats. Maintaining a constant vertical height, two electronically controlled masking panels glide in from the left and right to create the perfect image area when viewing different types of media or movies filmed in various aspect ratios.

The CineCurve is available with any of Stewart's front or rear projection materials. A specialized snap-fastening system ensures a smooth and perfectly tensioned screen surface. Our VeLux™ appliqué finish absorbs over-scan and increases perceived contrast.
