The Next Generation of Media Players!

This patent-pending, one-of-a-kind, next-generation media player built tough to withstand the rigors of daily use, is so versatile that every teacher, school, parent and kid will want one.

With a simple touch of a button, music, books, stories, podcasts, webcasts and personal creations can be uploaded to Juke24™ from virtually any device – USB, computer, CD, smartphone or tablet.

Early learners need repetition and constantly ask to hear a song, a book or a sound track again and again. Juke24™ makes it easy to provide approved content that fosters learning through repetition.

Designed to hold up to 48-hours of any audio content that can be replayed as often as desired, Juke24's visually customizable buttons can be re-programmed at any time with new content.

As ingenious as it is to upload content to Juke24™, assigning custom artwork to the 24 buttons is just as easy. Using the free iPhone app, creating button artwork is fun and quick.
